

Joseph P. Fusaro, D.D.S.

Dr. Fusaro was born at Good Samaritan Hospital in Islip, NY and grew up on Long Island.

College:

University of Scranton, Pennsylvania - Graduated in 1991 - Earned a Bachelor's of Science in Biology.

Post-Graduate Education:

University of Maryland - Baltimore College of Dental Surgery (Baltimore, Maryland) - Graduated in 1995 with a Doctor of Dental Surgery Degree.

Richmond Memorial Hospital - Graduated in 1996 with a General Practice Residency Diploma. This is an additional year that Dr. Fusaro spent in training. This advanced training permits Dr. Fusaro to complete treatments, which a regular general dentist normally will not provide such as IV Sedation and certain surgical procedures.

Fellowships:

Dr. Fusaro obtained Fellowship in the Academy of General Dentistry in July 2003 (FAGD Diploma). This designation recognizes the doctors' commitment to continuing education by obtaining more than 500 hours of post-graduate education and training and passing a comprehensive examination in all facets of general dentistry. Dr. Fusaro is undergoing continuing education to receive mastership in the academy. Only select dentists have obtained this prestigious accomplishment. Dr. Fusaro is also a member of the Commonwealth Study Club.

Dr. Fusaro has been a dentist since 1995. He has practiced, as an independent contractor for 2.5 years for the Air Force in Warner Robins, Georgia. He was an associate for a cosmetic practice in Arlington, Virginia, before becoming a partner in Fredericksburg Dental Care in August 1999.

Personal:

He is married to Teri and has three children. His son, Grayson was born in 1998 and his daughter Annalese, was born in 2002. His third child, his second son Ian was born in 2005.